

We have taken Scully, our 10 year old Lab X Retriever, to Pampered Pooch since we were lucky enough to become her new owners, after she retired as a Guide Dog.

Angela treats her with affection and great care. We know that we are leaving her in very capable and professional hands. When we collect Scully she looks and smells wonderful! We would highly recommend Pampered Pooch without any hesitation.